Welcome to the UW English in the High School page! This section is meant to provide you with information specific to the UWHS English program. In the links below, you can access materials for UWHS English 131 and 111 courses, information about orientations and events, and other web resources.

- UWHS English Policies
- Additional Links

PLEASE NOTE:
Starting Fall 2016, English 131 and 111 may no longer be co-offered with another "College in the High School" program or with AP courses. For more information, click here. For questions/concerns please contact UWHS English coordinator Elizabeth Simmons-O’Neill at esoneill@uw.edu.

INSTRUCTOR RESOURCES

Pedagogical Resources
- Sample Teaching Materials - including syllabi and lesson plans, activities, prompts, and handouts, organized both by outcome and by topic
- Support for working with Multilingual Language Learners (MLL)

General resources for teaching English 131 or English 111 can be accessed at the UW Expository Writing Program's website. For information about student registration, grade submission, or other UWHS nuts-and-bolts, please visit PCE's UW in the High School Workspace. Questions or comments about this page can be sent to the UWHS English liaisons at uwhsengl@uw.edu.
