

University of Washington
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Undergraduate Scholarships for 2017-2018)
(Application Deadline is March 16, 2018)

English Department scholarships are available for declared UW Seattle English majors. The scholarships are awarded toward standard resident full-time tuition only, and do not include other student fees, books or expenses. All current English majors are urged to apply. There are eight undergraduate English scholarships available that vary from approximately $150 to full tuition:

- ☐ Eilert Anderson Scholarship
- ☐ Edward G. Cox Scholarship
- ☐ Robert B. Heilman Scholarship
- ☐ Roger Sale Scholarship
- ☐ Peter L. Thorpe Scholarship
- ☐ Tia Vall-Spinosa Sullivan Scholarship
- ☐ Luckie Budd Waller Scholarship
- ☐ John Kimball Woolley and Afton Woolley Crooks Scholarship

The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of recommendation is MARCH 16, 2018.

Scholarships are awarded by the English Department Undergraduate Scholarship and Awards Committee and are announced before the end of Spring quarter.

Requirements: You must be an English major enrolled at the UW as an undergraduate for two quarters by the application deadline (March 16, 2018), and you must have a UW GPA of 3.5 and a UW English GPA of 3.7 with at least 10 credits of UW English course work completed. During the term of the scholarship, recipients must be enrolled for at least two quarters and complete a minimum of 6 credits each quarter. Some scholarships require demonstrated financial need which will be certified by the UW Financial Aid Office.

For more information, please contact Janie Worm (jworm@uw.edu) or Annee Fisher (af5@uw.edu) in the English Department office (543-2690).

Applications for undergraduate Creative Writing prizes are available in the Creative Writing Office (Padelford B-25, 543-9865).

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Name: _____ Date of Application: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Telephone (____) _____ Student Number: _____

Major: _____ Double major: _____
(department name) (when declared – Qtr. & Yr.) (department name)

Status next Autumn Qtr: Freshman _____ Sophomore _____ Junior _____ Senior _____

Date of expected graduation: _____

Number of credits earned in English courses: _____

Number of credits earned in UW English courses: _____

English GPA: _____ UW GPA: _____

Are you eligible for FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE? Yes _____ No _____

If yes, the date your FAFSA was file with the UW Office of Financial Aid: _____

Are you currently working or employed? Yes, full-time _____ Yes, part-time _____ No _____

If you have not filed a FAFSA but wish the scholarship committee to consider financial need please attach an explanation on a separate sheet.

Attachments required:

- 1) A double-spaced essay (2-3 pages) in support of your application. Though the content is up to you, the essay should convey a sense of you: your history, interests, reasons for studying English, &/or possible career plans.
- 2) A paper you consider to be your best work submitted in an undergraduate English course at the UW.
- 3) Two personal letters of recommendation from English department faculty or TAs familiar with your work. Please list the names of your recommenders below.

Name: 1. _____ 2. _____

*Submit your application and the above materials to Janie or Annee in the English Department office, Padelford A-101 by 5:00 pm on March 16, 2018.

Please note that some English Dept. scholarships are restricted to students who qualify for financial aid.*